MEMORABILIA

1958

As you open this book and gaze,

Remember fondly your high school days,

The hops, the time the fire began,

Our Junior Prom with Salamone's band,

The football games we almost won,

The things we did but shouldn't have done,

Guidi's bakery with food galore,

Here comes you know who through the door!

Mid-year comes and those tests we dread;

Graduation day lies right ahead;

Four years of happiness brought to an end.

Wouldn't you like to start over again?

As you close this book remember well

The Class of '58 — it sure was swell!

In Memoriam

SOMETIMES events happen which are often unexplainable to us. One such occurrence was the very sudden death of Mr. Francis T. Nolan, teacher of mathematics and history, on February 11, 1958.

This act of God occurred during our fire-emergency vacation, and came as a great shock to all who made the acquaintance of such an energetic personality. He easily worked his way into the hearts of each one of us with his ready smile and quick wit.

It is with deep respect and humility that the Class of 1958 acknowledges the faithful service of Francis T. Nolan, a member of the Clinton High School faculty since 1954, President of the High School Teachers Association, and high school varsity baseball coach. He was highly respected by all who knew him — a friend to students and athletes alike.

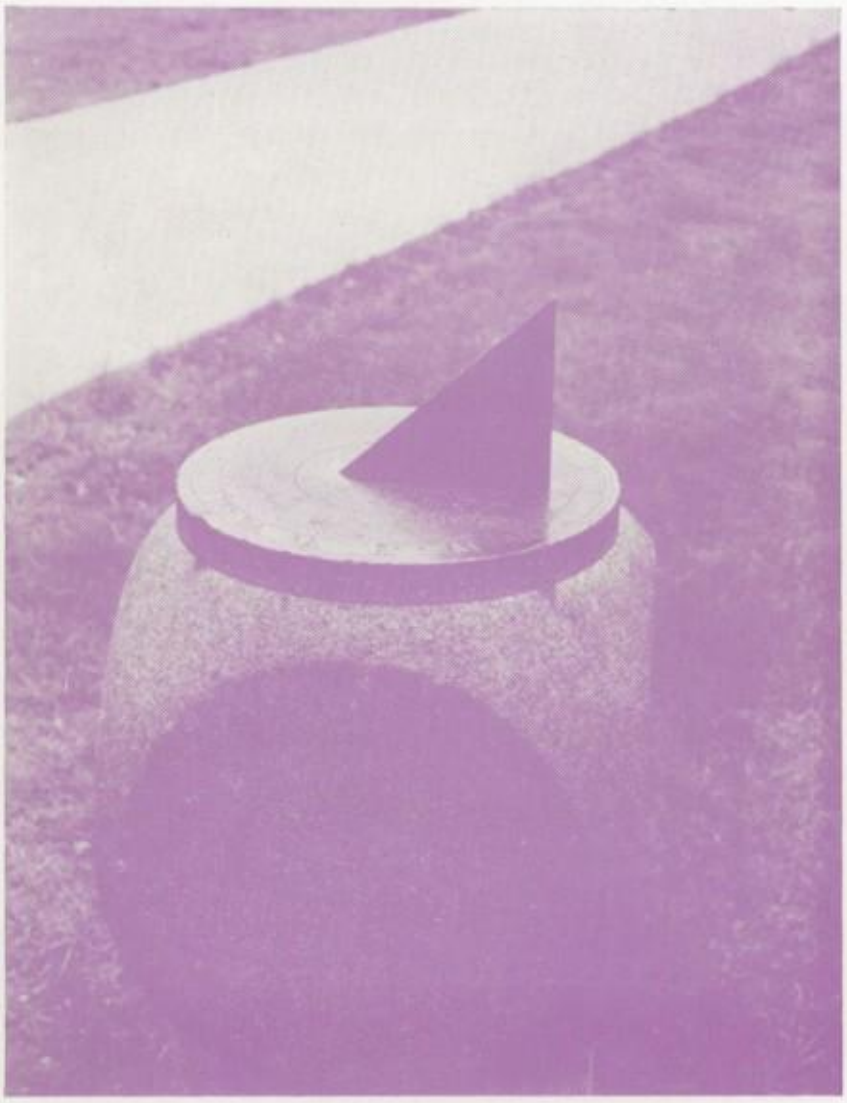
Class History



FRESHMAN

We entered into the mystifying halls
Gazing at all the Senior dolls
Sports, dances and big thick books
Were all part of the brand new look

As the gray shadows of graduation close in on us, we pause to bring to mind the happiness of our four years together. As Freshmen, we braved the perplexing halls of C. H. S. and the age-old jokes of the upperclassmen. We waded our way through the uneasiness of new surroundings and finally settled down to work as a class. Mr. John W. McNamara of the faculty was appointed as our class adviser and, under his guidance, we learned to work together as a group. Our first task as a class was to conduct a class election. In a close contest the following were chosen: Robert Gibbons, President; Carroll Burke, Vice-President; Sharon Connelly, Secretary; and John Philbin, Treasurer. We established a treasury by conducting a turkey raffle and then we contributed great support to the school spirit. We attended all sports activities and we saw for the first time the much talked about Thanksgiving Show. Interclass Dramatics Competition was re-established during our first year, after a brief absence from the school curriculum; and the class put on an excellent production. Then June rolled around, and our first year together rapidly came to a close. We recessed for the summer, with the anxiety of being a sophomore pounding heavily in our hearts.

SOPHOMORE

As Sophomores we knew all the ropes
No longer called those "Freshmen Dopes"
Represented now in every sport
Football, baseball, or on the court

We returned to C. H. S. as sophisticated sophomores, a year older and a year wiser. We became easily adjusted to a new curriculum, and we now had our part in playing jokes on the new Frosh. We held our second class election in the early fall and chose Paul McLaughlin as President, Carroll Burke as Vice-President, Sharon Connelly as Secretary, and John Philbin as Treasurer. We stepped back into the social spotlight, and no sports event or dance was successful without the presence of our class members. We enriched our class treasury by conducting another turkey raffle, and our financial position was now on its way to a good start. The highlight of the year was the receiving of our class rings. The time passed by quickly and soon June was here, bringing to an end the fun of another year. But the fall would come quickly and then we would be the Juniors of Clinton in year Number Three.

JUNIOR

Junior year — jolly and gay
Smarter still in every way
Our prom anticipated all year long
Came to an end at the 12 o'clock gong

In September of '56 we returned to C. H. S. as Jolly Juniors, another year closer to graduation. This was going to be an exciting year for us. Already our thoughts were turned to planning the Junior Prom. We got back into the old routine and the social whirl quickly. Our third class election was held shortly after our return and saw Mike Freel elected President, Carroll Burke as Vice-President, Sharon Connelly as Secretary, and Jack Philbin as Treasurer. To have a successful Prom, we realized it was necessary to have money in the bank. We held our annual turkey raffle, and again this added a sizable sum to our bankroll. The girls in the class then decided that turkeys shouldn't be responsible for all the money in the treasury; so they conducted a food sale. Another spectacular production was put in by our dramatic enthusiasts in the annual Inter-Class Competition. Next in line were Mid-Years. After this, the year rolled by quickly. Prom time was just around the corner, and ideas were floating freely. We finally decided that the theme would be "Garden of Roses." An attractive theme and a beautiful Prom it was! The prettiest Prom ever to be held — it was also the most successful, financially. This was a rare occurrence, and a special tribute should be paid to the Class of '58 for this accomplishment. As the Prom became a memory, Graduation was next on the school calendar. The girls in the National Honor Society served as Junior Marshals; and the remainder of the class watched the exercises, realizing that the next graduation would be theirs.

SENIOR

Although in years to come
We'll always remember the fun,
Whether we're far or near,
We'll always remember our Senior Year!

After spending an enjoyable summer, the Class of '58 returned in the fall to mount the steps of good old C. H. S. for the last time together. This was it for most of us: ten months more and that long-dreamed-for day would be here. However, between September and June many exciting things were to happen to us. We started the fall with annual events: homework, football, and dances. As usual, we held our class elections. In this important election we placed our confidence in the following leaders: Michael Freel, President; Ellen Henighan, Vice-President; Ann Philbin, Secretary; Richard Andre, Treasurer. As a class our spirit was terrific. We all worked together as one. This was the reason why so many of our projects as a class were so successful. Our main projects, during the senior year, were selling Christmas cards and conducting dances. This is how the Class of '58 got rich quick. The many dances which we did hold in the Town Hall were quite popular with the entire student body; but, without the efforts of our class advisors, Mr. and Mrs. McNamara and the ever-faithful Mr. Walter Henighan, these dances wouldn't have been possible. To them we can say "thanks a lot for all the fun you let us have." On the social calendar, football and the Thanksgiving Show came and went. Inter-Class Dramatics Competition finally saw us win a long-deserved award for our production "French Toast." Then as we bluffed our way through Mid-Years, we arrived at the time every senior looks forward to since his freshman days—the eventful last five months. However, somebody must have read our plans, because the main portion of the school burned to the ground on February 6, 1958, just two days after Mid-Years had ended. It seemed that now we would get that long-needed new school. In the meantime, they had to put us in school somewhere, and senior headquarters were made in the Major McRell School on Walnut Street. At first the fire seemed a joke to most of us, but it didn't take us long to realize that the memories of three and a half years together went down with the school. Nevertheless, after a month's delay, we returned to "C. H. S." on March 3. It was great fun, running from Major McRell to Corning, to the Armory, and the remaining Deitzman and Annex, particularly in the slushy snow, the spring rains, and the warm summer sunshine. We had our own "University of Clinton"; and this extra exercise could be classified as our physical education period, especially since cars were banned from use during school. Finally, basketball, baseball, track, the Senior Hop, Assemblies, and Clinton High School all became memories as of June 25, 1958. That was the last night we stood together as a class. This was the last class ever to graduate from the original Clinton High School.

"My heart is whole, my fancy free,
Go away, little troubles, don't bother me."

The "Cedar Hill" district has made a worthy contribution to C. H. S. in the person of "Bill," one of those carefree fellows who never worried too much about studies or marks, yet managed to make the grade. With his wonderful personality and friendly manner "Bill" has won many friends while at C. H. S. If he is not working diligently he can always be seen riding around town. "Bill" plans to attend Worcester Trade School in the fall, and the best wishes of the Class of '58 go with him.

History Circle; Senior Boys' Club.

Richard Andre

"A friendly heart wins many friends."

"Richie" or "Sockie," as he is commonly known, is one of our more popular boys from the famed "Acre." He was elected Co-Captain of the football team and Treasurer of the Class of '58. "Richie" has won himself a host of friends at Clinton High with his personality and friendliness. He is always ready for a good time. "Richie" plans to enter the U. S. Air Force upon graduation and we, the Class of '58, wish him all the luck in the world.

Football 3, Co-Captain 4; Class Treasurer 4; Exchange Student; President of the Student Council; Thanksgiving Show 4.

Charles Baer

"Make every bargain clear and plain
That none may afterwards complain."

"Charlie" is not only one of the smallest boys in our class, but he is also one of the friendliest. He has won many friends with his genialty. He does not participate actively in sports, but he is an ardent admirer of all sports. "Charlie" never believed in studying too much, but he got along all right just the same. He has not made his plans for the future known to us, but we all know that if he strives for his goal, he will certainly reach it.

History Circle; Octopus Staff; Senior Boys' Club.

Joan Carole Bender

"She makes the sun shine in a shady place."

And now we introduce "Joanie," a girl with a pleasant manner and a personality to match. Although "Joanie" never burned the midnight oil, she has always managed to get her share of good marks. Sincere in every way, she is always ready with a cheery smile for everyone. "Joanie" will always give a helping hand when needed, and can be found at many of the school functions. We, the Class of '58, wish her the best of luck at LaSalle.

Interclass Dramatics 1; Student Council 3; Science Club; Junior Prom Committee; Senior Hop Committee; Octopus Staff.

June Edith Bevilaqua

"To be carefree and gay, that's always June's way."

A vivacious, smiling-eyed, fun-loving girl, June, with her pleasing personality has won a host of friends at C. H. S. She is an enthusiastic supporter at all our football and basketball games and she never misses a record hop. June, who hails from Lancaster, is a member of our band. A student whose name appears regularly on the testimonial list, she plans to take a hairdressing course at Girls' Trade. Best of luck to you, June, from the Class of '58.

Junior Prom Committee; Senior Hop Committee; History Circle; Thanksgiving Show 3, 4; Band 1, 2, 3, 4; Class Book Staff; Orchestra 3; Octopus Staff 2; Dramatic Club.

Anne Irene Bienkiewicz

"Her laughing eyes, her gentle smile, she's a friend well worth-while."

Charming personality, sparkling eyes, and a brilliant mind, that's Anne. She has done exceedingly well in her studies which can be proved by a quick glance at the testimonial list. Anne, the girl with the pretty golden hair, enjoys all sports, swimming being her favorite. When she's not working at the hospital, she is constantly seen with Carol. Anne plans to be a future housewife and we know she will be a success. Lots of luck from the Class of '58, Anne.

Junior Prom Committee; National Honor Society; Junior Marshal; Class Book Staff; History Circle.

Gertrude Mary Brejtfus

"Such quietness doth excite suspicion."

Quiet and unassuming, Gertrude has many fine qualities and is always ready with a smile and a helping hand for everyone. She is emphatic proof of the statement, "Good things come in small packages." Steady and dependable, she has gone her quiet way making friends on her journey through C. H. S. Gertrude has not as yet decided what she intends to do after she graduates, but whatever she chooses, the best wishes of the Class of '58 go with her.

History Circle; Glee Club.

Ernest F. Bufton

"If work interferes with play, drop work."

Now we come to "Ernie," one of the boys who hails from the Acre. With us, "Ernie" gave the impression of being nonchalant and happy-go-lucky, and a firm believer of mixing pleasure with studies. He can be seen driving a black Ford sedan, receiving ah's and oh's of his fellow classmates. "Ernie's" plans for the future are to enter the U. S. Marine Corps. Best of luck, "Ernie," from the Class of '58.

History Circle.

Ronald D. Bufton

"Put off today what you can do tomorrow."

"Ronnie" is one of the quieter members of our class, who never cared much for studies. He can frequently be seen drivng his red convertible up and down the main streets in town. Acre's gift to the Senior Class, "Ronnie" has one of the more mechanical minds of the class. His interest in cars is a big part of his life and will probably pave the way for his future mark in life. Whatever he chooses, we of 1958 wish him the best of luck.

History Circle.

Rose Carroll Burke

"When Irish eyes are smiling."

Carroll, the girl with the sparkling Irish eyes and a staunch supporter of the fighting Irish of Notre Dame. Her pleasant bedside manner will long be remembered by the Clinton Hospital patients where Carroll spent a great deal of her extra time as an aid and preparing for her future career. She can always be found at all school functions where her enthusiasm is appreciated. However, "Burkie's" chief claim to fame is through her famous blush which has followed her from class to class. As a student, she has maintained a constant appearance on the testimonial list and we are sure that with her background she will have great success as a woman in white. Best of luck, Carroll, from the Class of '58.

Class Vice-President 1, 2, 3; Student Council 2, 3, Secretary; History Circle; Latin Club 2, 3; Science Club 3, 4; D.A. R. Representative; National Honor Society; Junior Marshal; Band 1; Class Ring Committee; Class Book Staff; Junior Prom Committee; Senior Hop Committee.

Sandra M. Burns

"Her quiet charm and unassuming manner,
Bring forth her pleasing ways."

"Sam," as she is known to her many friends, entered C. H. S. in her senior year from Wachusett Regional High School. Her pet peeve is baseball and she is an ardent admirer of Ted Williams. You can usually find "Sam" behind a counter of the "Beat Music Shop" selling the latest records. She hopes to enter the business world and we know with her sunny disposition and pleasing personality, she will achieve her goal. Good luck, "Sam," from the Class of '58.

History Circle.

Nancy Carol Collamore

"A certain dignity of manner."

Nancy is not the studious type—rather she is a typical high school girl, doing the required homework, taking the necessary subjects, and participating in some high school activities. She hails from Burditt Hill, and after school hours can usually be found behind a counter at the Five & Ten. Nancy has the ability and persistence to become a great success in reaching any goal that she may set for herself. Whatever this goal may be, she has the best wishes of the Class of '58.

Junior Prom Committee; History Circle; Senior Hop Committee; Octopus Staff 1, 2.

Joanne Eileen Comerford

"It's nice to be natural, if you're naturally nice."

One of the quiet members of our class, Joanne's sincere and generous attitude have made her a friend to all. Extremely interested in her school work, Joanne has been faithful to her studies. Her readiness and willingness to co-operate have endeared her to both classmates and teachers. Joanne's future lies in the nursing profession and with her sofe, reassuring voice and ready sweet smile she will undoubtedly bring comfort to many. Good luck, Joanne.

Junior Marshal; Junior Prom Committee; Octopus Staff 2, 3, 4; Science Club Officer 3; Latin Club 2; History Circle; German Club; National Honor Society; Class Book Staff.

Sharon Ann Connelly

"Friends she has many; foes, has she any?"

Sharon, a popular Senior girl who hails from Burditt Hill, is well-known as a lover of sports and a fine cheerleader co-captain. She can always be seen at all the football and basketball games cheering our Galloping Gaels on to victory. During her four years at C. H. S. her name has never failed to appear on the testimonial list. Sharon's plans for the future are still indefinite, but she has the ability to obtain a good position in life. We, the Class of '58, wish her the best of luck in the future.

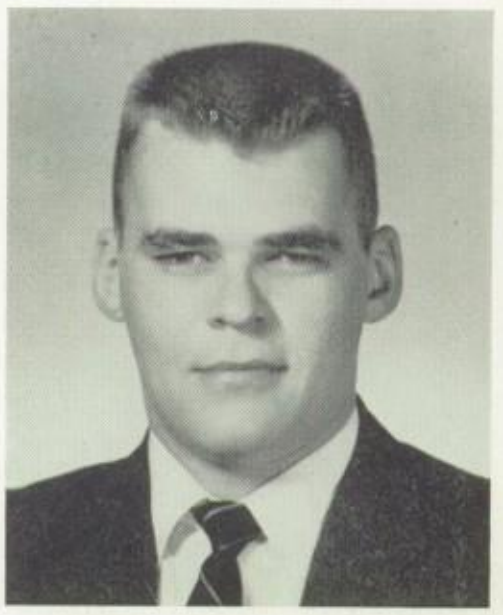
Cheerleader 2, 3, 4; Band 1; Junior Prom Committee; Senior Hop Committee; Class Ring Committee; Class Book Staff; Thanksgiving Show 1, 3, 4; History Circle; Junior Marshal; National Honor Society; Student Council; Latin Club 2.

Robert A. Cooper

"Never trouble trouble, till trouble troubles you."

To the casual observer "Bob" is quiet and reserved, but we who have known him through the past four years are positive that this conclusion is erroneous. He is a firm believer in leisure to study. Has he ever been known to look on the dark side of life, or study when he didn't have to? "Bob" hasn't acquainted us with his future plans, but we, the Class of '58, extend our best wishes for the future.

History Circle.



Paul Reno Cravedi

"Always carefree, always gay; a quiet man, with little to say."

There is no need for an introduction to Paul, a carefree lad who hails from the famed Greeley Hill. In the short time that he has been with us at C. H. S., Paul has acquired a multitude of friends and has participated in many class activities. "Heimer" is the last of the Cravedi athletes to leave C. H. S. and certainly the best. Surely it will be very difficult to fill the gap in the grid line which Paul leaves vacant. Although studies do not particularly agree with him, Paul has managed to maintain an average grade. With his friendly disposition and carefree manner he is bound to be a success in the future. Paul plans to enter military service and the Class of '58 wishes him the best of luck.

Football 4; Senior Boys' Club; History Circle.

Karl Jay Davis

"Laugh and the world laughs with you."

The class was honored to have Karl join us this, our Senior year. Originally from Germany, Karl's fine personality and high ability are his assurance of lasting success. During the months he spent at Clinton High, Karl won an array of lifelong friends with his constant smile and pleasing ways. Coin collecting, baseball, and track are the hobbies of our well-known lad. Destined to be an electronics engineer, we, the Class of '58, wish Karl good luck in this endeavor.

History Circle; Science Club; Senior Boys' Club.

Leo Joseph DeBlois

"He's born for success, it seems."

"Buzzy," a transplanted Acreite, is ranked high on the list of the most popular Senior boys. During his four years at Clinton High, he has attained an enviable scholastic record. He is a good athlete, co-captain of the Galloping Gaels basketball team and an infielder on the baseball squad. Along with his school and athletic life, "Buzzy" always finds time to support school functions and activities. With his brains, ability and pleasing manner, success in his college career is inevitable. Best of luck, "Buzzy."

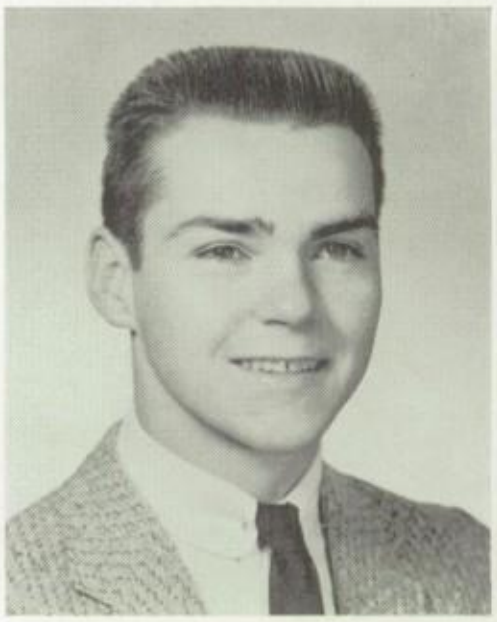
Math Club; French Club; Junior Prom Committee; Senior Hop Committee; Basketball 2, 3, 4, Co-Captain 4; Baseball 1, 2, 3, 4; Latin Club; Science Club; History Circle; Senior Boys' Club; Class Book Staff; Executive Staff.

Ann Elizabeth Dorazio

"She's a friend that is true, and there are like her few."

Ann, the possessor of a friendly smile and a pleasing disposition, has gained the lasting friendship of her classmates during her high school years. Reliability and a desire to help others are her dominating qualities. Her favorite pastimes are listening to the radio and popular recordings. Ann's plans for the future are indefinite, but we know she will be a success in whatever she chooses. Best of luck from the Class of '58.

History Circle.



Thomas William Fadgen

"Personality, a gleaming smile, an active mind, a friend worth-while."

And now we arrive in God's country to meet "Tommy," a quiet lad with a mischievous twinkle in his eye. A well-known member of the Class of '58, "Tom" is an outstanding student whose name never fails to appear on the testimonial list. However, his ability is more than scholastic for "Tommy" has been a prominent member of the football team as well. He is definitely a great participant in all activities and he can always be found lingering in the corridor with a friendly "Hi" for everyone. The Class of '58 wishes you the best at college, "Tom."

Class Book Staff; Class Ring Committee; Latin Club; Math Club; German Club; Junior Prom Committee; Interclass Dramatics 3; History Circle; Football 2, 3, 4.

Barbara Mary Flaherty

"A maiden modest, yet self-possessed
Always happy and trimly dressed."

Shining red hair and sparkling blue eyes describe "Barb." A terrific personality won "Barb" many friends during her high school career. You can usually find her at all social and athletic events, or giving wrong numbers at the telephone office. She plans to become a teacher of tomorrow, and we know she will go far on the road to success. The Class of '58 wishes her the best of luck.

Latin Club 2; Student Council 3; Junior Prom Committee; Senior Hop Committee; Class Book Staff; French Club; Honorary Member of the Women's Club; History Circle.

Maxine Susan Fox

"The only way to have a friend is to be one."

Maxine, better know as "Max" by her friends, is a very nice girl to know and a good friend to have. She always has a smile for everyone, and is always ready and willing to help out in any or all class activities. The Class of '58 wishes you every success, Maxine, in anything you may attempt in the future.

Octopus Staff; Junior Prom Committee; Senior Hop Committee; History Circle; Glee Club.

Michael John Freel

"The rule of my life is to make business a pleasure, and pleasure a business."

Now we come to "Mike," an amiable and prudent member of our class. He is well-known for his even temper and congenial manner. His popularity rated him on top in the election for class president. He conducted our class affairs so efficiently that this last year has been a great success both socially and financially. Also, out on the basketball court he was a sparkling reason for our fairly successful team. Besides being a favorite with his friends, "Mike" has been able to achieve high grades in this class. He is leaving us to pursue a career in law. Best of luck from the Class of '58.

History Circle; Latin Club; German Club; Student Council 3, 4; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Baseball 2, 4; Class President 3, 4; Junior Prom Committee; Senior Hop Committee; Class Book Staff, Business Manager; Representative to Student Government Day.

Marguerite Rose Gable

"A quiet manner hides the mischief in her eyes."

"Maggie," a pretty blonde with a winning smile and a friendly way, is one of the most cheerful members of the Senior Class. Don't let her seemingly quiet looks deceive you for she is always ready for a lark or prank. With her personality and sense of humor, "Maggie" has breezed gaily through her four years at C. H. S. "Maggie" plans to study hairdressing after graduation. The Class of '58 wishes you happiness and good luck in all your future plans, "Maggie."

Octopus Staff 1, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club; History Circle; Senior Hop Committee; Junior Prom Committee.

Robert Thomas Gable

"Silence is golden."

"Bob" is one of the quiet members of the class. He is known by his friendly smile and likeable manner. In his spare time, "Bob" works at Shanberg's Market. He is a judge of fine automobiles and is a familiar sight driving his Ford convertible around town. "Bob" plans to enter the U. S. Coast Guard after graduating from C. H. S. We all know that he will succeed in this endeavor. The best of luck goes with him from the Class of '58.

History Circle.

Paul J. Galvin

"A little nonsense now and then is relished by the best of men."

Paul is a Burditt Hill lad that everyone knows and likes. He can be easily distinguished by his light-haired crew cut and easygoing manner. He can be found at all athletic and social affairs and, although he prefers leisure time to studying, he manages to obtain a passing grade. Paul is one who certainly gets around. Of course, we mean in his Chevrolet. He plans to enter Trade School and the Class of '58 wishes him good luck in the future.

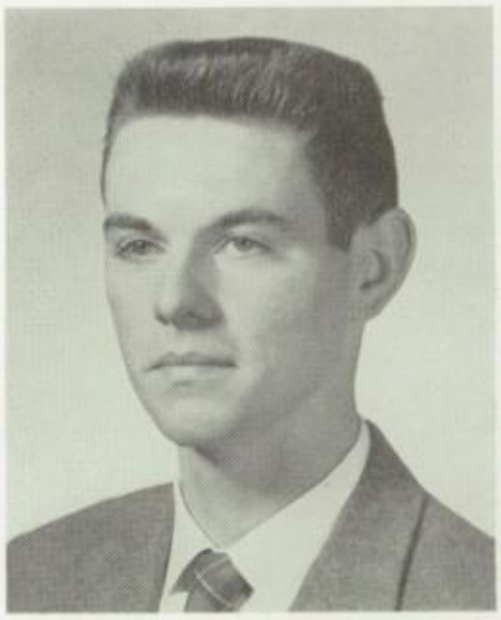
History Circle; Junior Prom Committee; Senior Hop Committee; Senior Boys' Club.

Merrill Earl Gamarsh

"The right man in the right place."

Merrill possesses one of the most versatile personalities in the Senior Class. He takes great pride in working out difficult physics and algebra problems. Besides his scientific endeavors he finds ample time for social life. His friendly, easy-going manner has made him one of the most popular members of his class. Merrill plans to enter the U. S. Coast Guard after graduating from C. H. S. and the best wishes of the Class of '58 goes with him.

Science Club; Latin Club; History Circle.



Robert Joseph Gannon

"It's time to leave the books to dust."

Here is "Bob," certainly known and liked by everyone. Although not too concerned with studying, he occasionally surprises us—and himself—with unexpected marks. He is an avid follower of the "Galloping Gaels" and can be found at all class affairs, also. Almost every afternoon you will find him working at the Item Office. "Bob" plans to enter Worcester Trade School after graduation and take up printing. With his outstanding characteristics, "Bob" should be a success in his chosen career. Best of luck, "Bob," from the Class of '58.

History Circle; Class Book Staff; Junior Prom Committee; Senior Hop Committee; Senior Boys' Club.

David Paul Gaughan

"To get thine end, lay bashfulness aside."

"Butch" is one of the quietest members of our class who hails from the Acre. His favorite pastime is hunting. Every free moment is spent following some animal's tracks. "Butch" is very bashful, but one of the nicest people to have as a friend. He hasn't made up his mind as to what his plans are for the future, but we're sure he'll succeed in whatever profession he may choose.

History Circle.

Robert Martin Gibbons

"Every complete work requires a complete man."

"Bob," one of the few boys who hails from Greely Hill, is best noted for his football ability. In his Junior and Senior years he was selected for the Most Valuable Player Award and was elected co-captain in his Senior year. Also, he is a very capable student. "Bob" attends all social affairs, especially if they are connected with sports. His manner, for the most part, is quiet and reserved, but his pleasant disposition and sense of humor has truly established him in the hearts of his classmates and teachers. The Class of '58 knows that he will be successful in his chosen field.

Cute, petite, and oh, so neat—that's "Flo," as she is known to her host of friends. Here is a miss that is living proof of the statement, "Good things come in small packages." A classy dresser, she's always been an example of neatness mixed with sweetness. She has a sparkling personality, sunny disposition and a perpetual twinkle in her eye. "Flo" is radiant and excitable, but can also be cool, calm, and collected. She's an ardent sports fan; always ready to cheer the boys on to victory. "Flo" plans to become a secretary and one thing is sure, any office will be made brighter where she sits behind a desk. Good luck from the Class of '58.

Robert E. Grindle

"I'd rather be small and shine, than great and cast a shadow."

"Garden of Roses"

PRESIDENT — MICHAEL FREEL

QUEEN — ANDREA ROULEAU

On a starlit night in June the Class of '58 held a Prom which was acclaimed as the most successful in years. Couples entered the gaily decorated ballroom by crossing a wooden bridge in the middle of a garden. The ballroom was a spectacle to behold; hundreds of multi-colored roses covered the balcony amidst green ferns and glittering silver paper. The largest crystal ball in the history of Clinton High School Proms twisted and turned merrily to capture each delicate rose and reflect its color over the dancing couples. Each table was covered with white paper with lacy edges and a centerpiece of ferns and roses. The front of the stage was cleverly converted into a spring garden, complete with picket fence, roses, and wishing well.

At 10:30 P.M., Salamone's orchestra began the Grand March. Under the able direction of Mr. Lewis Gordon, the Senior Class officers, in traditional fashion, relinquished their caps and gowns to their successors from the Junior Class.

At the end of the Grand March, Junior Class President Mike Freel crowned Miss Andrea Rouleau '58 Queen of the Garden of Roses. Queen Andrea sat beneath a trellis of roses surrounded by her court attendants: Marie McDonald, '57, Carroll Burke, '58, Mary Halloran, '58, Claire Jakubowicz, '58, Diane Morelli, '58, and Patty O'Connell, '59.

As the last song played and couples began to leave, we knew in our hearts that this lovely evening would be tucked away in our memories as one of the happiest events of our high school career.

Queen of Hearts

On February 14, 1958, the Senior Class held its annual Senior Hop at the Fallon Memorial Auditorium. Over 100 couples entered the gaily decorated ballroom by passing under a trellis with a lattice work of red and white streamers. The ballroom was encircled with a cavalcade of red and white hearts which led to a larger heart, welcoming all who attended. Red and white streamers seemed to flow from all parts of the ballroom to meet in the center at a silhouetted figure of Cupid. The words "Be My Valentine" were placed on a background of sparkling silver. The red background of the Queen's throne carried the theme of our hop, "Queen of Hearts." The throne itself, situated on a mound of grass, was draped in glittering red brocade. The whole ballroom was transformed into a spectacle to behold.

The dreamy music of Salamone's orchestra provided the evening's entertainment.

At 10:30 P.M. the Grand March, led by Mr. Salamone, took place. Then came the exciting event of the evening, the announcement of the Queen and her court. The Queen was Miss Mary Halloran. Her attendants were the Misses Andrea Rouleau, '58, Diane Morelli, '58, Betty Notaro, '59, and Patricia O'Connell, '59. Miss Maureen Kelly, Queen of the Hop of '57 and recently chosen Miss Worcester County, crowned the Queen and presented her with a bouquet of red and white carnations.

As the last song played and the couples left the ballroom, they took with them fond and pleasant memories of the Senior Hop.

Clinton High School Fire . . .

In the early morning of February 6, 1958, a raging and stubborn blaze laid waste the seventy-three year old main section of Clinton High School, and the two remaining wings were damaged by smoke and water in one of the worst fires Clinton has seen in years. Damage was estimated at four hundred thousand dollars.

Firemen from Clinton and Lancaster joined to battle the blaze for four hours in sub-freezing temperatures before it was finally brought under control. The cause of the fire was overheated wires. The flames, which started in the boiler room, leaped through a huge hole on the first floor and continued climbing through the second floor of the central section of the building. The stubborn blaze pushed upwards to the third floor, spewing thick black smoke and flaming embers through the top windows. Smoke filled the building's main section, and flames were seeping through the partitions about an hour after firemen arrived. At exactly six forty-five o'clock, flames burst through the roof of the center and leaped high into the air, sending sparks spiraling skyward, threatening nearby buildings.

School was suspended for a month, and a great controversy arose over where the students would go to school. Offers for school space poured in from nearby communities as well as local churches and organizations.

Finally, it was settled that the seventh and eighth grades from the Major McRell and the Corning School would attend afternoon sessions, while the High School students would use these facilities for morning sessions. In addition, the Armory was put into use for Commercial Studies, and the remaining wings were repaired and put into service. On March 3, 1958, classes were resumed; and new books and school supplies were issued to all students. Once again the wheels of education began to turn for the students of Clinton High School.

Everything happens to Stoney Jones on the evening before he was going to be married. Charlie and his friends threw a party for Stoney and Nancy, at the end of which Madame De Tour and her daughter Nanette from France show up with evidence that Stoney and Nanette were married in Paris. Poor Stoney is bewildered. He says he has never seen them before. Then Mrs. Smith and Nancy return looking for a purse. Stoney tries to prevent the meeting of the Americans and the French. Finally, he bribes Madame De Tour and Nanette to leave, and everything is settled. The next morning Charlie shakes Stoney, waking him nervously, because it was only a bad dream.

After her date doesn't show up, Becky considers herself unlucky for giving Tom up. At last, she gets the news that she's been "stood-up" and finds herself all in a dither. The play exemplified well some typical teen-age problems.

"Billy's First Date" was our presentation in Interclass Dramatics as Freshmen on December 29, 1954. Even though the Class of 1955 won the prize, our classmates presented a top performance which was enjoyed by all who attended. This show could not have been the success it was without the expert direction of Mr. John W. McNamara, whose experience showed us the way to a polished performance.

His sister helps him to ask Myrna, who promptly accepts — but Bill could kick himself for asking her. She is practically a baby — 13 or 14 — while he is 15! Teddy helps him out, and Mom asks attractive Barbara to go with him. Bill is just stunned to have two dates. Barbara's and Myrna's mothers both appear, and arguments arise. But Bill's faithful satellite appears in the nick of time and solves the situation to the satisfaction of everyone.

BALL

The Galloping Gaels started the season with a decisive win over St. Peter's High of Worcester. From there on it was as if Lady Luck had never known the Gaels, as they dropped the remaining six games. Among these decisions were close games against Trade, Notre Dame, and St. Bernard's where the Green and Gold had many chances, but failed to reach paydirt. However, the record did not exemplify the spirit, determination, and fight which the boys possessed; they gave their all at all times.

The departing Seniors wish the best of luck to Coaches Whelan and Hazel.

Basketball...

With the coming of the winter, the C. H. S. basketball season made its debut. Having lost last year's team through graduation, Coach Edward Conners had the task of rounding out a whole new team. After two weeks of rugged practice sessions, Coach Connors selected nine capable starters for the Galloping Gaels. Although dropping the first few games because of injuries and mishaps, the team started clicking when they were confronted with Midland League competition. The surging Gaels surprised every one of their worthy competitors, winning major upsets and dropping some close ones. The season ended rather well, due to the consistent scoring of Co-Captain Joe Rymsza and Paul McLaughlin, and the team efforts of Co-Captain Leo DeBlois, Mike Freel, Dick Lozier, and Paul Santos. Three weeks after the season closed, we were invited to the Worcester County Tournament, held at Fitchburg State Teachers College. Due to this lack of practice and rigid competition, we were eliminated from the tournament.

Baseball...

Spring has come and it brings with it our national pastime, baseball. Newly appointed Coach Owen Kilcoyne starts his initial season, replacing former coach, Francis Nolan, who died suddenly and unexpectedly in February.

The 1958 edition of the Gael baseball team, confident of improving previous years' records, reported for their first practice early in April. Three seniors were represented on this team: captain and center fielder, Gerry LaPenna; pitcher, Bob Gibbons; and shortstop, Joe Rymsza. Future years look bright for Coach Kilcoyne, as most of the squad is made up of sophomores and juniors.

Up to this time, Clinton has a record of two wins and two losses—one of the victories being over Milford, a perennial powerhouse.

Good luck for the remainder of the season!

Track...

After an absence of many years, track activities have been resumed at Clinton High School. Of course, it was to be expected that the team would be a green one; but the team has a good potential and made a fair showing against Notre Dame of Fitchburg and Lunenburg in its first tri-meet. Against Gardner, in the second meet — all we can say is that Gardner won. We will leave out the final score, but the team showed improvement, all events compared to its first showing.

The team is being coached by Robert A. Whelan, former Boston University football and track star, and he is doing a very fine job. Co-Captains Guy LaBrack and Tom Fadgen, both excellent spark-plugs, have turned in good performances.

The senior boys who have been helping the team along are Guy LaBrack and Tom Fadgen in the sprints and broad jump; Jim Marcotte and Allen Mueller in the quarter mile and high jump; Jack Philbin in the shot and discus.

In the next year track will grow, and it is our prophecy that an excellent team will be the result.

WE wish to express our sincere appreciation for the opportunity of printing this forty-fifth volume of "Memorabilia" for the Class of '58.

It was a pleasure working with Patty Kraft, Jack Philbin, Mike Freel, Buzzy DeBlois, Claire Jakubowicz, Joanne Comerford and Bob Gibbons of the Class Book Executive Staff.

Working with Faculty Advisors at Clinton High School since 1946
has been a bright spot in our yearbook schedule.

This year's Class Advisor, John W. McNamara, has set a new high in performance, above and beyond the call of duty.
